

Through the Flower

The Dinner Party K-12 Curriculum

Ensuring that Women's Achievements Become a Permanent Part of our Cultural Heritage

Through the Flower's K-12 Dinner Party Curriculum is aimed at making sure that women's history becomes an integral part of students' education.

To help accomplish this goal, we invite you to join Judy Chicago on Sunday, February 28th from 3-5PM at the fabulous Scalo Restaurant in Albuquerque's historic Nob Hill district. Judy Chicago will present a special lecture that explains why changing art curriculum is so essential to changing history.

Judy Chicago will present the lecture
"Rethinking Curriculum in Art-
The Dinner Party as a Path to Empowerment" at 4pm.

Fabulous food and drinks provided by Scalo- only $75.
The first 50 teachers to purchase tickets will get a ticket for only $50.

Performances by the Santa Fe Women's Ensemble throughout the event.

Tickets on sale starting January 4, 2010 through the Lensic
Theater, www.lensic.com,
and Tickets Santa Fe www.ticketssantafe.org.

The venue, food, and drink for the event have been generously donated by Scalo Northern Italian Grill.

This fundraising event is sponsored by Scalo Northern Italian Grill in Nob Hill and the New Mexico Committee for the National Museum of Women in the Arts.

Please contact Susan Berk at 505-603-5646 for more information.